they had no bridge to cross the river. but had little boats. old flat bottomed ones, with Paddle wheels. We leave the river at a small
place called Lemoyne
road kind of tricky
around here got lost
and had to inquire the
way. We take the Lincoln Highway from here to Gettysburg. ate our dinner on a side road about 5 miles from Lemoyne
had to eat in the car
as it was still raining first place was Hillsburg only a small place
mostly pasture land
here. and some Calbagg

Picked up a guide outside of Gettysburg, he took us around the battle where the South & north fought the
deciding battle of the civil war. we drove 17 miles around it.
the guide said there
was 57 of roads in all
and 15,000 acres of land, that there was
