

Friday January 13, 1922.

Kent delivered mail on the Bay path and the McLeod Creek road. I went round by Earl Crofords and we looked over the Hyatt Branch and then I delivered to Lewis Owen, and back by the Club and helped Kent to take the colts home.

The day was fine and roads good.

Saturday January 14, 1922.

I went to Chatham on the 10 a.m. car and came back on the 5.45.

Kent delivered on the whole route. The day was cold, the roads are good.

Sunday January 15, 1922.

I went to Church in the morning the others stayed at home.

Charlie Bush and Loats were here they came last night and went away this afternoon in their Auto.

We put the five young horses in the stable this afternoon.

The day was cold with a strong wind.
