

April 3rd 1892.

Sun. 3, Clear and bright in the morning but high winds from the South West, clouding over at evening having the appearance of rain.

Mon. 4 Warm but cloudy, at about 10.30 am, it set in raining very gently, at night it rained quite heavy, the S. Cleaver - Pier Port is expected to make her first trip to-day. I was informed so by the Agent at wharf Office. Wrote to John Robinson, Syracuse N.Y. to Robert Wilson Chapman P.D. and John Rodgers, Belleville

Tue. 5, Cloudy in the morning, clearing off at 10 o'clock, lovely and extremely warm, Thermometer 90°. Wrote to John Robinson, Syracuse N.Y. Lovely moonlight to night.

April 6th 1892.

Wed. 6, Today cold and cloudy, very sudden change since yesterday, Last night the wind blew a hurricane, continuing all day, till about four o'clock turning clear and bright wind subsiding, Wrote to John Robinson Syracuse N.Y.

Thu. 7, Lovely spring day, mild and pleasant, clouding over to night, helped to sew the rag carpet to-day, and finished, is now ready for the floor, The Boy's bought a road cart for the purpose of traveling their horse this season, Melissa and Mrs Connolly, Yorker, had a setto, over a silk dress which she former was making, for the latter, terrible times at our house, Roads are just lovely now,