

Croton January 1904

- Tue Jan 26th Snow most of the day and cold. Sarah called in a few minutes
- Wed Jan 27th clear a pleasant winters day the thermometer down to zero this morning
- Thu Jan 28th clear a pleasant winter day but sharp 12 deg below zero this morning James Blackburn the assessor was here this afternoon
- Fri Jan 29th cloudy the cold about the same as yesterday Sarah was here cleaning house
- Sat Jan 30th a stormy day. Pearl's baby died last night. I went down to the cemetery to show Edwin Young and William Smith where to dig the grave
- Sun Jan 31st not so cold Snow again this evening. attended Pearl's baby's funeral and the anniversary service
- Mon Feb 1st clear and cold I got word this morning that Aunt Sarah Bolton died last Saturday night

Pearl's
Baby
Died

Croton February 1904

- Tue Feb 2nd a cold blustering day. Aunt Sarah Bolton was buried this afternoon it was an awful day for a funeral.
- Wed Feb 3rd cloudy and drizzling Snow most of the day a cold day
- Thu Feb 4th cold clear fore noon after noon cloudy and drifting Snow. Sarah and Pearl called this afternoon
- Fri Feb 5th cloudy and cool not so cold as it has been. Sarah was here cleaning house and baking. Sath Crowell was here collecting the ministers salary
- Sat Feb 6th cloudy and soft. rain last night and this morning. Bolton called in a few minutes this afternoon he is not looking well
- Sun Feb fore noon heavy fog after noon cloudy windy and cool there was thunder and lightning last night rain this morning Sarah called awhile this afternoon Shad a letter from Kate