151 TO COME

Diagnotic "Mays and Musts"—No. 4.

Present-day authorities caution us to mistrust "migraines" after 45. No matter how characteristic the symptomatology, if a migraine persists after this age or appears after 30, suspect nephritis, arteriosclerosis or organic brain disease (occasionally tabes may give rise to migrainoid symptoms).—Williams; Med. World.

Rained a few drops 8 & half eighty six girls & I went for the mail. Was at Mrs. In Lays & maudie had her nose burned on the inside again. The first thrashing machine of the season went west 6 days back again to night is raining a little again to night father was cutting some more of his wheat & drew it in straw
