

Aug. 15-

Wednesday 15.

Terrible hot day. Maud and Miss Killpatrick went to town this morning then to Bruce after dinner and then to Mrs. Caverly's for tea. Maud went to town at noon for the binder knife. I was down to Mrs. Ashtons a few minutes this morning planning for Miss Hughes' wedding. Charlie thrashed for Crosby until about four o'clock. Charlie Marchant came after the lambs this afternoon.

Thursday 16.

Another terrible hot day. Mr. Sturgess was here and put rods on the house. Mr. Killpatrick came after Maud and Margaret so Maud is going to stay down there. Mr. Bonser's friend came after some honey. Mother and I took the iron down to Mr. Heighpleighs tonight. Charlie was here all day.
