

The boys have been ploughing on the big flat again today, which, by the way they have finished ploughing there. I worked at taking off water this forenoon in the back fields. This afternoon I went out to dinner to look after some little matters of business.

Read a remarkable case of faith cure in the Mail of an English Church minister. After a life long sickness, he was first sanctified and afterwards cured of his bodily ailments in answer to believing prayer.

Did not go out to church this morning but this evening instead. Have enjoyed the sabbath very much notwithstanding. The weather has been quite cold and windy and the roads rather bad in places.

In communing with my God I have been graciously blessed and ~~made~~ made glad with the assurance of his presence and sympathy. Am ever desirous to give myself fully to His service, and to live in the full enjoyment of His great deed of His Salvation from
