

1920

dinner I wrote - had more letters for Charles.
Made him some sandwiches to take with him on afternoon train to Walkerton. He expects to want them after the banquet and brass meeting are over. Took the letters to the office and then called on Mrs. Leslie, who seems to be much worse and has to be hauled around considerably. Alice was calling there at the same time. Also called to say good bye to Mrs. D. G. Scott who leaves on Wednesday for Montreal. Mrs. Scott is manager in a Branch of the Merchants-Bank near there. She was not in but we met her in the street and said good bye to her. Practised an hour.
Counted the words in "Dorothy's Story" "and in Conclusion." Practised a couple of recitations for the young people's meeting. Debate Resolved That the Senate of Canada should be abolished. Very good. Negative won.
Apprentive. W. P. King & Harry King negative. Mrs. Davy and Mrs. Loane.
I recited "The Mystified Quaker in New York" and "The Faithful Lovers."