

Wednesday June 22, 1921

Roy took the first part of the mail and Mabel did the second part

The day was fine.

Thursday June 23, 1921

Roy went on the first part of the mail and Mabel on the second.

The day was fine.

I went down with Mabel on the second part and let a job of grading on the Mills side road.

Friday June 24, 1921.

Mabel delivered on the first part

Roy on the second part

Mr. English cut and hauled in clover. The day was fine.

Saturday June 25, 1921

Mabel delivered on the first part and Roy delivered on the second

One of the tires gave way with Mabel and we had to wait the second part of the mail till we got one from Chatham on the 5 p.m. car.

The day was fine.

Paid for vulcanizing our side tire and having a new one put on $8.00