

did not see Sarah. We go to big bridge with idith where we left her in Mrs. Spru-ggs's company. We returned with old Mrs. Gage. At 5.30. P. M. on Sabbath hill on horseback. We got home safely but rather tired after hearing about the strange family who have traded place with Mr. Washin, in Dakota or vicinity.
Thurs. 2nd. Washing this morning. Mrs. Day & Mrs. Buch called this morning. Mr. & Mrs.
& Agnetta Curtis came this afternoon while I was in the house alone just ready to go to Bronte. They did not stay long as they had intended as we were so busy. I took them to the field to see Sarah's grave then went to Bronte with them. They met Andy. Hemmings got a side horse. Ella's her mother called in ev'g. in post here for a short time but did not come in.
I made a puzzle of a letter & gave him tonight. It was written in telegraphy. He intends to leave Bronte shortly for Chicago.
