

Crippled. The two Riprasie boys came up on horse back and got Frank and me to go with them. Frank took Belle & I took Joe. We had a dandy ride and called in for Corby and got him to go with us. We went way down the lake shore to the town line from there to Mud street and up it home. A couple of times we rode down on the beach and then made the horses climb the hill. It was nearly six o'clock when we got home. Roy went down to Huber's for tea and Mr Frank and Ersk went to church. Ersk had to play for Jeitha Barwell who sang a solo. I'd been wouldnt stay with Vernon after Ersk left and I came in and found him under the table just yelling for all the night, but he soon cheered up when I took him out and showed him old Gladys and the horses. It has been a very nice mild day but how long

Monday April 5th

This morning Frank and I took down three sacks of oats to the mill to be chipped and then went down and got a load of sand and unloaded it before dinner and went back down to the mill and got our grist. Dad drove Vernon & Giddums out to Tommy Jack's as Vernon wanted to see Mrs. Gadsden about getting some eggs. Goby and Frank are going down to Huber tonight so I said I would finish this up as it is behind it now being Wednesday night. He did not do much in the afternoon, worked at the brooder a little. It has been a raw day and threatened rain several times this afternoon. Roy went down town and Vernon and Rebecca went to Mrs. Batterstays to play bridge. I drove Hattie down there for tea, we took the baby with us and he came home with me. Willard won the big fight.

Tuesday April 6th

We were all up early this morning and I drove Roy to the station. Mrs. McPride came to do the washing, the boys and I put a load of hay over the horse stable, after dinner Goby and I took a little hay to the cow stable and then we hitched to the other wagon and took the girls and baby down town on our way we picked up Mrs. Jack Martin and Miss Cope, she unloaded at the Post Office then Goby and I went to get a load of sand, brought it home hitched Joe to the buggy and started to see Vernon off, but it took us so long to get home with the sand on account of the roads that we missed the train
