Friday November 18th
I didnt do much but chores this forenoon and this afternoon went down and paid the taxes and collected my canning factory money which come to $54.86. Inez was here all day and I took her home to-night. Tom came over about the middle of the forenoon and ploughed till about two o'clock and then went home. Very raw and cold. Freezing hard to-night.

Saturday November 19th
Spent the forenoon doing odd jobs & chores one of which was to put the pane of glass in the attic window that Mary shoved out with the broom the other day. Tom came over as he did yesterday and ploughed till one o'clock and then I sent him down after a load of coal. Mary went down this afternoon and took in Mrs. Clark Matthews sale but didnt buy anything. I stayed home with the kids & got the shutters & storm door on the back porch. Cold and raw.

Sunday November 20th
Mary B and I went to Church this morning and then Bill the boy from Rusty's & the farm came over Lee & dinner to celebrate Greg's birthday. And we had a great party. Mary got a couple of ducks from Ada Donald Ryckman and I killed a chicken. They all left about four o'clock.

Monday November 21st
We all went down town this forenoon and Mary ordered a dress from Eaton and I took my dress suit & the blue one that Dad. gave me to Moores Tailors to be all ready for Doris's wedding next Saturday night. This afternoon I went over and helped Tom move a little straw from the barn to the drive house. Tom ploughed this morning. Cloudy moist & mild. Dad. & Dick went to the Royal Fair to-day.

Tuesday November 22nd
I went over and cleaned out stables for Tom this morning so that he could get an earlier start with the team and he ploughed all day. I cleaned up the old dilapidated fence that ran from the corner of the door-yard to the lane and did a lot of cleaning up around. This afternoon I took off the screen doors and put on storm doors. This was another open day for black squirrels and Jim Frank & Ray were out this afternoon & got four feet of the boys. Frank brought us some venison that
