

who proved to be Ernest & his two cousins Melville & Clarence Lucas from Montreal.
Well we all enjoyed ourselves splendidly except Grant and I don't know what was the matter with him. Clarence played a great deal and "such a beautiful player!"

We made our organ sound like a pipe organ. Sarah & Melville had a promenade around the gardens. Mary Jen & Ida had a little drive. Pat & Grant were alone awhile. Then Pat & E. M. got into summer house alone. They stayed till ^{about} eleven. I rode down to gate with Grant and the rest walked down. Such a lovely moonlight night! Then we all stood a moment and thought where will we all be in another week.
Mel. & Clar. in Montreal. Ernest in London. Jen. in Toronto & the rest in Brant.
