

Friday March 7th

Frank and I hauled out three loads of manure this morning on the sleighs and spread it on last year's potato patch. one load was cleaned out of the calf pen. This afternoon Dad and Frank hauled up two more loads of wood in the wagon. I went over to Jack's and harrowed an egg tester and tested out my eggs. I took out 28 out of the seventy and broke one good one. To night Frank and I went down town. Frank went to the picture show to see "Intolerance" but as the engine broke down he didn't see it all so he didn't wait till it was fixed. I went over to the Montiths, the old man is pretty sick. I did see a robin on the lawn this afternoon. Freeze pretty hard last night but sunny to day.

Saturday March 8th

Dad and Frank hauled up two or three more loads of wood in the wagon this morning while I did chum and took Pommer's acid for a little exercise. Chas. Beaulury came after Frank at noon to go and see some thing about his cattle out at Fair's as Fair had telephoned him and he was pushing ice and didn't want to quit, so Frank was out there all the after-noon. Dad hauled up one more load of wood alone as I waited around expecting Tom Thompson in as he told Dad. the other night that he was going to take his ulsike to Jarvis to-day and would stop in for a sample of our clover seed to take to Harry Wisner. however he didn't come. When Dad came with the wood I took the team & wagon and went down to the mill and got a bag of oat meal. I saw Art. Preston prowling around the place and thought he was one of the Seventh-day Adventists as he had a beard on him like a Balshavitski. I asked him if he had lost his razor but he said he had been sick again, and had been taking Russian Oil from Dr. Nicks, which I suppose accounts for his Balshavist appearance.

To night Mary and I went to the Gem to see "Intolerance". It was certainly a wonderful picture especially the siege of Baby lon. Frank went down to a birth day party at Bill Barwells to night. Rain east wind all day and snowing hard but getting softer when I came home to night.

Sunday March 9th

The snow storm turned to rain before morning and it
