

Went to the office and got some Easter-cards for Mrs. Ryan. Wrote to Donkey Sean, to Clare and to Dmg. Lillis. Beautiful day - Fresh and sunshiny.

Friday
Dec. 11th nice day. In the morning wrote a couple of letters for Julius and typed his answer to Mr. Mattison's letter on "Christ and Prohibition".
Went to the office in the afternoon, called at Mrs. Seacht's address, made the entries, and got a branch of letters. Came home and typed them. Put one patch in the lining of my fur coat and went to see the Methodist performance in "The Minister's Bride." They did it very well but that sort of a play does not appeal to me much. Julius went with me.

Saturday Raining in spells. Did my Dec 15th mending and darning and finished patching the lining of my fur coat. Duncan was up for
