The Essential Blood Bodies,

i.e., the red cells, are restored, and their structural integrity assured, by the steady administration of Pepto-Mangan (Gude). By virtue of this improved condition of the vital fluid, nervous equilibrium is often restored and psychasthenia relieved, without irritating the digestive tract or disturbing any of the vital functions.

~~Remained in the evening~~
A fine day though Grandie's Grace & even to Adams & my them had his sale. John bought the manure spreader & Cengene the milk wagon Grace went home with Cengene & Mr. Beaver
I was over to Texas a little while to night John & I cleaned out under the south barn.
