JUNE WEDNESDAY 20 (171-194) 1923

very warm today I hoed a little over in the Bank lot in the forenoon I went down to the Dock after dinner when they brought Willard Smiths body in around Village the rest of the afternoon not feeling well tonight Kenneth Putnam took his truck and Irvine and I went down to the Orange Hall and got a load of Lumber That I got from Gerald Cockrill

THURSDAY 21 (172-193)

very warm day I painted the Verandah floor in the forenoon I went down to Will Somervilles and traded Hay fork outfits with him in the afternoon he is to give me 40 to 60 rod Erie went with me I brought a load of Lumber home with me from the Orange Hall around home in the evening Willard Smith was buried to day

JUNE FRIDAY 22 (173-192) 1923

I got up early and Garfield Donner Erie and I went down for Dorothy at Brockville Garfield stayed down and we came home in the forenoon. Irvine and I and the kids went down to Morton in the afternoon we came back as far as Ossies and stayed there for Supper came home in the evening fine day I started to hill up my potatoes in the garden in the forenoon - did some working in the afternoon over to Office in the evening I traded a Maxwell Horse hoe with Gordon Lemay for 4 cords of Maple wood.

SATURDAY 23 (174-191)