THURSDAY 19

1874

Spent-forenoon firing a large stone in center of orchard field. This afternoon was hauling firewood for Jas Sewell, off the line of Gt Railway in the "other place woods". This evening we had a general melee and slaughter in the poultry house killing and dressing <sup>47</sup>hens for the market.

FRIDAY 20

A snow storm about three inches fell last night. Spent the day choring around and making preparations for winter. This evening Mrs Watson lectured in Ebenezer Church to a full house on the "The Street Arabs of London". A load of Brampton young people were up at the meeting.

SATURDAY 21

1874

Mrs Watson staid at our place last night. This morning I drove her down to Brampton in time for 9 o'clock train. She will attend the Grand Lodge I.O.G.T. next week at Brockville. Sold to J C Snell two Berkshire hogs 3 months old @ $12.50 each. Sold to Mr Marshall of Boston a shearing Cotswold ram @ $20.00

SUNDAY 22

Went to school at 10 A.M. Supt and Sec. pres. lesson Mark XIV 3 to 9th - "The anointing of Christ at Bethany". Rev Mr Bell preached at Zion this afternoon and tonight in Brampton, text, Psalm XCVI 11th verse. A deeply impressive sermon abounding with striking illustrations and full of spiritual fire.
