

Wednesday, March 28

Weather, Mostly fair & cold with light
Eggs-190 ^{a snow}

Truck started to lay to-day

Norm & I were baling hay at Vanhook's all day

Fred did the chores & scraped trees

Gertrude went to city along with John

Gertrude & I attended a concert & dance along with Padgett at the Masonic hall at Richmond Hill.

Walton's boy born early this morning.

Thursday, March 29

Weather. Mostly fine & cool
Eggs-153

Men pruned trees in morning

Jim & children were over in morning

Fred went with Leo on the north trip with the team on account of the roads

I picked over apples in afternoon

Plate Glass Insurance

Property Damage Insurance

