

Ther.

FRI. JAN. 21, 1898

Wea.

The rain has cleared off and it has frozen some which makes it more pleasant, after I got the work done I went to the sewing to finish W. Linscheer's vest. I got it done all except the buttons I have not got them yet so could not finish (I set bread

Ther.

SATURDAY 22

Wea.

I rose this morning and after lighting the fire I attended to the bread, I baked bread and buns, and swept and dusted my room in the forenoon, and after dinner I finished sweeping and dusting, and finished vest