

March 1866

21. Rained all day, a cold E. wind, very few in church
Caldor of Lancaster preached, text Math. 9. chap. 36. 37. 38.
verses. The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few. It was a missionary sermon, no prayer meeting.

22. High E. wind accompanied by snow, very ugly day
I have a bad cold, so has Marion

23. Another ugly cold day, sold two calves 3.25 =
5 for them both Auntie & Hattie were here
this evening & Auntie gave me a bonnet 75 cts feather 1.25 =

24. Wednesday The calves were taken away
I was not at prayer meeting I have a bad cough

25. Got another calf a bullock. There was a Temperance Meeting in the Hall this afternoon Officers appointed to look to after the Red Act.

27. Sold 3 doz eggs - at W. got 1/4 lb pepper 1/4 Cream tartar. & 25 cts. - got syrup at Dan's 15.
very fine day the boys tapped 100 trees got 2 zinc kettles - 25 cts each - 100 spoils - 1.25 - 1.75

28. Sabbath another fine day, far went to the Gore

29. Cold wind in the morning, far went to the Gore and got 2 big pots. 7.50. P.M. sent a letter to Murphy & P. <sup>100</sup> it is raining, poor look out for sugar making

30. Raining a little yet - boiled some sugar

31. A goodly number at farmers meetings

6.00
3.00

60

29

65

50
15
5