SAT. OCT. 22, 1898

Wea.

I rose and found it still raining, it is too wet to thresh so the threshers went home. I baked a small batch of bread, and we put some apples to dry, we also brought in the potatoes and put them in the cellar, and part of the canned fruit. S. Graydon and men called on their way home.

SUNDAY 23

Wea.

We were late in getting up this morning, as I was not feeling just as well as I should be, George went to church alone, the roads are pretty muddy, it is cool and cloudy, we are having dull rainy weather now, not very pleasant.
