

My Journal.

Walsingham
& Co.

Friday 20th February 1857. The carriage bought I almost dread. I hardly know whether I shall like it or not. I think I shall after a while. It takes me always a long time to forget old associations and form new ones. I surely learn to like it. It is a nice place. In summer I think it will be very beautiful I live in hope. I do not think I could be content to remain here always but for a few years I can like it. My earnest prayer is I may be enabled to do faithfully my duty while I do remain.
I feel I can do much to lessen my father's cares. Much to influence encourage and restrain my brothers. O! that I could supply to them the place of elder sister & Mother.
Please God I will try. None especially is Newton. incl. my
