WED. MAR. 16, 1898

Wea.

W. G. was up again first he made the fire. Jas Hall is cutting straw today W. G.
and W. Benneber is there helping. Post Marshall called to ask me to help at their threshing tomorrow.
I was busy washing lace
and ribbons, and doing
some work for Mother.
A thunder storm last night.

THURSDAY 17

Wea.

I rose this morning after
W. G. had put a fire on the men are in the bush.
The Marshall came for me
about eleven o'clock to go to help Jennie this afternoon.
I did not get home till about ten o'clock. Today
Jennie has had a bad day.
