

May, 1925.

17 Sunday. Cloudy cold and drizzly. We spent the day at Grandpa Krauter's. Sam's & Lina were there too.

18 Monday. Fair and warmer. The men harrowed the corn field and picked stones. Ella put up the curtains and varnished the linoleum in the dining room. Hard frost last night.

19 Tuesday. Lovely day. Ella did her washing and planted corn, melons, cucumbers, beans, etc. The men were picking stones. The doctors opened Salome and found her full of cancers.

20 Wednesday. Beautiful day. The men were picking stones. Dad. Musselman's barn at Elkins burned down tonight. Six cows, six calves and some implements were destroyed in the fire. Mrs. Osias Bauman, Mrs. Bauman and little Lucinda called here tonight.
