

November

bes <sup>8</sup> 80 pors

Northgrave for $15 per ton delivered at Turner's station. Noble was ploughing. Uncle Alfred was here. Nellie Gertrude eldest daughter of Rev. <sup>J. A.</sup> & Mrs. <sup>N. D.</sup> ~~McLaughlin~~ of Chesley died Nov. 19th.

Saturday 27

Fizzling, snowing a little. Bright part of the forenoon. The boys were at Uncle Alfred's threshing. I was there for dinner. Papa & Mamma were in. P. E. Caroline Schwass was here yesterday for a little bit to sell Xmas seals. We did not get our Baldwin apples or the russets at other places. A great many people have not finished their <sup>putted</sup> Fall work.

Sun. 28

A nice day. Bright. Papa Rowand & I were at church in morning. The boys were at Uncle Alfred's. Uncle Alfred was here. Wm. Geddes died to-day.

Mon. 29

Bright & nice. Atkinsons started to thresh just before dinner here. Agnes helped us at dinner time. Uncle Alfred was here. Mamma has not been well for <sup>several</sup> days.

Tues. 30

Bright partly. Finished threshing between 3 & 4 o'clock. Uncle Alfred was here. Noble was at Ed. Schwass's threshing the rest of day. Frost last night. Jas. Gowantock was here last night to see Mr. Atkinson. <sup>3:30</sup> an hour for threshing. We are near the last <sup>Atkinsons have to thresh</sup> day.

Wed. Dec. 1

Dull mostly. A little drizzle in the morning.
