

me
I saw
I wanted
train.
It was
It was
or not
straight
to tie &
telling
the effa
dout
it not
I had
in front
London
as he
inquisit
felt
re for
I hold

of one & I fell on the floor & he tried to pick me up & - one but I pulled & jerked like everything to get away from him. I could not bear him so at last freed myself without any signs of a mark on my face. We played question & answer cards. Bob asked the questions & we all answered in turn. It was splendid fun. We also played "Ship's arrived" and paid forfeits. Viola redeemed the forfeits as E. J. held them over her head, & she would tell the owner of the forfeit what they were to do. Jennie & Bob had to walk the "cedar or camp" together & to pick cherries together and I kissed her lots of times & she did not care. We had "Jacob ladder" too & shooting the common off in which we all went on the floor. We had popped corn & luzifers to throw, and we all sang then and I some comic pieces. And it poured