December MONDAY 8 1919

very fine and warm today. Alex Brown and I killed the pig in the forenoon. I cut it up in the afternoon. I traded the Blacksmith Mary with Frank Rushford for a Battery and self starter I gave him 12.00 To boot did some writing in the evening Gerded brought Mrs Cockrill and Nellie up tonight.

December TUESDAY 9 1919

rainy day I arose up to Sleazy and got the glass for the Cellar Storm Windows and puttyed them up in the forenoon. I cleaned out the waste pipes from the sink in the afternoon received from Robert Webb 2.10 for Lugs for tractor. around office in the evening Paid Willie Steacy $10.00 for Robert Moultons phone Bill. Nellie sick in Bed all day to day