

Mum was here for dinner. Charles took bed rest over to Mr. J. B. Campbell at noon. The two Charlies arrived to Lake-Adelaide to the station and Mum went along. I made a lunch for Adelaide on the train. Later I went for a walk to middle of overhead bridge, spent evening quietly at home, both of us.

Oct: 4th - Bright but cold. Drove to Dunthorn (goes to Ottawa Thursday to-day from Montreal) and to Clare. Studied a little. After-dinner went to call on Mrs. Maywell. Met her going down town. I decided to go on down town. Called at office, Ritchie's (Mrs. Leitch out) at Charles's store + Dolphens. Pretty stiff after I got home. Charles went to the Bible Society meeting. I finished reading "The British Fleet in the Great War" by Archibald Hurd. Very hard just:

Oct: 5th - Cool, Showery. Studied a little. Charles Friday went to H. S. Field Day in the afternoon. As it was raining I just walked on.
