

and Ham Butcher's barn. Art. Juanburgs came through just before tea and said it had blown his barn about five feet back and racked it considerably. While his little 8x12 shack was turned completely over on its roof. To day it has been sunny but raw and windy.

Friday March 30th

Frank has been helping Ben all day again and to night I guess has him pretty well moved. Art Juanburg came in this morning before we had breakfast to see if he could get one of us to help him straighten his barn out so I told him I would go as soon as I could but as the first pair of lambs arrived this morning, and we had to trim the wool around the ewe's (Pop. Card) leg it was pretty little when I got to Art's. However Supper, Tom Welker and John Juanburg were there and there wasn't much for me to do anyway. I stood around and visited with them till noon and by that time they had the posts all picked about plumb so we ~~didn't~~ have to go back this afternoon. I guess Art isn't going to try to move it back where it was. This afternoon Dad and I took the black heifer up to Ham Thompson's. Ham wasn't home. Winnie was over to tea and after tea Dad and I walked down with her. Dad took
