

the Serbian relief fund. He was a very poor speaker and looked any thing but stowed as he says every one in Serbia is but made it clear that the kids over there were in pretty distressing straits and I think got quite a handle for the fund. Dick and I stayed at Auntie's dinner and I spent the whole after noon there visiting with Auntie, Auntie Alice & Louise. I came home in time to help do chores. Enah went down to tea and to play the organ to night. Mr. Farney preached but Mr. Johnson got home in time to take the service. Dad. & Lid. walked down after tea and came home with Enah & Hank went out to Bill Sidway's with some books. Very hot, dry. wind today.

Monday July 14th

Dad. and I spent most of the morning grinding mower knives but I went out about eleven and started to weed and thin mangel. I was at it all the afternoon and to night have four rows finished one was nearly done when I started. I sank cut the thick in the orchard this morning and was delayed a little by one of the ladder plates springing and catching a section. This afternoon he cut hay, timothy out east of the old garden. Dad. spent most of the after noon cutting the wheat with the scythe along the fence in the corn field. Auntie was open for a few minutes before dinner with some raspberries they had picked down home. Dick was down town all the after noon and in bed all morning. Old Broadway was here for a long time at noon this is his last trip. I went down to hand practice to night and went down to Pete Holmes Casino after wards where I found Dick & Jim. Frank was down town too and I had promised to meet him & go for a swim about half past eleven but when I got there he was in. I then waited for about half an hour for Dick and then went in just as he came. Cloudy & cool.

Tuesday July 15th

It rained a little spatter early this morning so as the alack was tough enough to work at. Frank cut for an hour or two this morning and then raked up the hay he ~~cut~~ ^{cut} yesterday. Dad. and I thinned out a few more mangels. This afternoon Frank cut the rest of the hay between the old oat stubble and the ditch. Dad. Dick and I cocked up what he raked. This morning I went over to Jacks after we got it
