

Sunday Apr. 17, 1921.

I went to Church in the morning the others stayed at home.

Charlie and Toots came here last evening and went away on the noon car to Chatham.

It snowed last night and this morning and the day was very disagreeable.

Monday April 18, 1921.

I went to Dover Centre in the morning and voted yes on the referendum and then delivered mail on all the route with Dick and Charlie's Cip.

The referendum went dry by a majority of about one hundred thousand to two hundred thousand.

The day was fine and the roads are drying fast.

Tuesday April 19, 1921.

I delivered mail on the route with Dick and Charlie's Cip.

Roy worked at repairing different things in the barn.

Mr English went to a "bee" at Neil Handco's.

The day was fine and the roads
