

On account of the almost impassible state of the roads we did not get out to church this morning as we desired.

Have been improving the time as best we could at home. This evening however I went over to hear Mrs. Eberhart. Always feel benefitted in this way. His discourses are always earnest and practical. It seems to me that his congregation could not be larger.

March is coming in like a lion indeed, and time. Both yesterday and today have been very cold and blue.

Have been lying up since I got to day. Mr. Stowford is helping in the sheltered place we found rather a pleasant day to work.

Have been somewhat busy of late with the city for the Spring campaign so soon upon