

February, 1925.

18 Wednesday. Fair and cold. Mildew with snow tonight. Walter made three trips up to Emerson's and brought home the implements. Vernon has a bad cold and stayed home from school. The neighbors had a farewell party at Emerson Krauter's tonight and presented them with a jardiniere stand and smoking set. Walter and Ella went, had a real good time and arrived home in the wee sma' hours.

19 Thursday. Cloudy and quite mild. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. He left his horse there, took the trolley to Waterloo and had his ears attended to by Dr. Noecker. He had his dinner at Edith's in Kitchener and arrived home at 7.30 p.m. Cornelius took a load of chopping to Elmira.
