 To love our enemies your father as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
 23 Therefore ye in that day, and ward is great in heaven: for in unto the prophets.
 24 But woe unto you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.
 25 Woe unto you that are full you that laugh now: for ye shall mourn and weep.
 26 Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you: for so did the fathers to the false prophets.
 27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies: do good to them which hate you: pray for them which curse you, and use you.
 28 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.
 29 Owe to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.
 31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
 32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for men also love those that love them.
 33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do the same.
 34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
 35 But love ye your enemies, and good, and lend, hoping for nothing again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he loveth the unthankful and the evil.
 36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
 37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.
 38 As thou dost, so shall he do unto thee: for thou shalt be given down, and shall be given running over. And men shall be as they are: for with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.
 39 And he spake a parable unto them: (Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?) 40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.
 41 And why beholdest thou that mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
 42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
 43 How canst thou say to him, Beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thine brother's eye?
 44 Therefore thou shalt first take the beam out of thine own eye: then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
 45 And when thou standest by thy brother's fault, rebuke him, that he may also be wise.
 46 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: but ye have not read, That he that loveth his neighbor himself loves himself: that the love of himself is the first commandment.
 47 And if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for they love them that love them: for this is the love of God, that we love him, and keep his commandments: that the love of God may be perfect in us, that we may abide in him, and he may abide in us, that we may bring forth much fruit to the glory of the Father.
 48 Whoso loveth himself
 his brother whom he loveth not, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen? for he that loveth himself, his brother whom he loveth not, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?
 49 The love of God is this, that we keep his commandments: that
 that we may bring forth much
 fruit to the glory of the Father.
 his brother whom he loveth
 he hath not seen? for he that
 loveth himself, his brother whom
 God, whom he hath not seen?
