

Friday April 21, 1922.

Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline with the Colts.

I delivered to round by the Club with Dick and Mary Kemp went with me intending to stay at M. J. Crawford's till tomorrow and then to come back with me and call in at Douglass's but no one was home at either place and she came back home with me. After coming home we burned brush in the turkey orchard.

The day was fine and the roads are dry but need scraping.

Saturday April 22, 1922.

Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline with the colts, George, and I delivered on the Club part with Dick. After coming home we burned brush in the turkey orchard.

M. J. English worked at putting in oats.

The day was fine and the roads are dry but rather rough in places.
