

and walked around the bed in the evening without bad effect. Duncan was here in the evening and put on several records. I finished reading "A Man for the Ages" by Irving Bacheller. Supposed to be tale of A. Lincoln but not much of Lincoln's life in it. Got my new saline dress (3rd one) 5 days. S. S. picnic does not seem to have been a great success. Congregation gave no help so Mr. M. A. has resigned as superintendent of the S. S. Hope he will re-consider it. Charles + Duncan played chess.

July 6th - Sultry. Dorothy walked out to the porch and Friday spent the morning there, walking back at noon. She also walked to the bathhouse. I finished reading "The Last Voyage of the Donna Isabel" by Randall Parrish. Callers - Mrs. Symonds + Mrs. Owens. I went down to Mrs. Beattie's after tea and
