

Ther.

THURS. JAN. 13, 1898

Wea.

There was quite a storm of thunder & lightning last night but it froze quite hard in the night, The boys are away to School today as usual, I was busy mending clothes and stockings today, George and W. Simbleer killed a fox this afternoon

Ther.

FRIDAY 14

Wea.

This is another fine day the sleighing is done for the present, I attended to the housework in fore noon, and after dinner
I went down to see Aunt Abbie who has got her foot sprained, I found Mrs ^{and} Geo. there, and Mrs McLean and family