

[1838?] _
8/5th Consider [Merritt?] Haight died 52 years ago about three o'clock [sic] in the morning _ Forty [sic] six years old, Lydia was three months old the day her father was buried.
Mary down to Stanleys [sic] picking berries, a very wet day a thunder shower _

[pg 21a]
1890, 8<sup>mo</sup> 7th 1838 Consider Haight buried, in Adolphus town, _
A very unpleasant day Mary & Carrie doing up berries. _ _ _

—
Carrie picking berries all day at L W
11th Quite cold fire in my room Levi with his overcoat on in the morning

—
12_ Went to Jane Cronks for dinner,
Mary Lydia & John Williams, eleven of us sat down to [dine? din?] _

—
20, _ Rachel came up to see us, went up for Lydia, so we had pretty good time, Levi went to Kingston, to sell butter, _ 16th The teacher came here to board, _ 21st Monthly meeting at Hillier, none of our folks there a wet day. _ _ _

—
[pg 21b]
8<sup>mo</sup> 24 Consider here also Walter
Levens, Mary Levens Lydia Sills
& Libey Dimond, _ Levi & Mary Went over to Stephen Hubbs, _

—
_26,
Lydia & Ellen Williams down here