

Oct 3rd 1892

Mon. 3. Dull and cloudy this morning, raining by spells most all day, a very heavy shower came up to night. There was a little thunder and lightening this morning but very few drops of rain accompanied it.

To night it is thundering and lightning, but not very severe, followed by a moderate rain.

Tue 4. Turned very cold this morning. Cloudy most all day, fine moonlight to night.

Wed. 5. Cold and cloudy. Hurries of snow during the afternoon. Mrs. M. Adams & Miss Boston, here to see me today.

Oct 6th 1892.

Thur. 6. Cold today, but some milder than yesterday.

Fri. 7. Fine, and some warmer. Today I am skinning mostly all day.

Sat. 8. A light rain early this morning clearing off at about 7 o'clock. The rest of the day Hall's Milk Inspection here. Today, I was at Mr. Hordie for the morning and accompanied through practice at Wesley's school.

Sun. 9. Beautiful day, a little cold in the morning, mid noon a few moon fine and warm. Spent the day at Mrs. Hordie and at night we went out to Wood-Burn Church we had a lovely time. M. A.
