

of the rest of the family went down. I spent the after noon down at the Monteith's and came home to tea and to do chores. Lila was here to tea and she and I went down town right after tea as I wanted to get to church. We cut across the pond as there were a lot on it this after noon and I got my over coat full of pitch fork and getting up the hill. I went to church but was about half an hour late. I picked the furrs out of my over coat during the sermon. After church I went over and spent the evening with Merj. Lige M. Brides was down to day to not Frank and the other day and died very suddenly yesterday. It hasn't been so cold to day but freezing all day. Cloudy & breezy.

Monday January 6th

Frank and I spend most of our time these days just doing chores. I husked the rest of the corn we had up this morning and Frank and I got over some hay this after noon. This was election day but Dad. didn't feel like going out to vote and I didn't want to take the time with the roads as rough as they are to drive way out to Wiggins school house

Jack Martin was in about four o'clock to get us to go out and vote for Hammond as he thought if he got in we might get the roads fixed up a little down in this end of the town ship. However we didn't go and Hammond got beaten by Gilbert by about 4 votes.
 In town R. M. Taylor beat Mat. Wilson for Reeve and the Council consists of Clace Deal, Jack Reynolds, Jim Bonnistie & Billy Lango.
 I am afraid they are more inclined to be knoockers than boosters but they may be all right. Cash and Lila went down to the Sunday school for tea to night and for a concert after wards in which all the kids took part. Frank went down after tea. Nice morning but rather blustery in after noon. Not cold.

Tuesday January 7th

We did all the chores up this morning so that we could go to her Baughne's funeral this after noon. Tom was over this morning greatly delighted at Hammond's defeat. Oscar Hawden came in to drive him out to vote for Hammond but he walked out to Marburg so that he could vote as he pleased. We went up to the funeral this after noon and didn't put in such a bad time. Frank and I. Colin Lloyd, Lige and Lynn Waddle were bearers. Lige was waiilt
