

July, 1931.

5 Sunday. Warm & threatening thunderstorms and showers this evening. Walter and the boys went to church & P. P. this afternoon.
The truck driver brought Betty and Connie up here for holidays this afternoon and we all went over to the Floradale Children's Day tonight in spite of the rain.

6 Monday. Fair and warm.
Walter helped to make fence at Jake Spiess' this morning and had his dinner there. This afternoon we took the whole family along and went to Grandpa Kraute's for cherries and Ella canned 2 baskets of yellow cherries tonight.
Aunt Elizabeth went down with us.

7 Tuesday. Fine and warm. The new hoed turnips. Vernon raked the sweet clover and they brought in 1 load tonight. Orpha Miller spent the afternoon here and washed for tea.
Ella canned the 2 baskets of black cherries.
