

Friday May 10th

Dad. harrowed and rolled the garden back of the shop this morning and this after noon went over my acre alfalfa plot with the spring tooth but he and Frank have worked the rest of the day on the pea ground and think it will be fit to drill to-morrow if all's well. Aunty and Aunty Alice came over about eleven o'clock and stayed to dinner and tea. Aunty Alice brought us over a pound of mungo seed half a pound each of red and yellow varieties so this after noon I went over and harrowed the mungo seed and ~~seed~~ Aunty Alice and I sowed them all on the garden back of the shop we just had enough seed to go over it except for two rows of potatoes near the orchard fence which I planted this-morning. They were Irish Cobblers. Aunty and Aunty Alice brought Frank and me ^{each} a dandy pair of gloves. Winnie came over to tea to-night, she won a two dollar prize on her composition on "The High school boys & the labor shortage" that wasn't just the title but it was the subject. To-night Cook and Aunty and Aunty Alice went over to Mrs. Batterships on their way home and Winnie and I went straight down town I went in to see Mary and as she had just got some trailing Arbutus from home we took a bunch of it down to Aunty. Billy Luigs came into the Bagleys before we left with some chicken feed and we had to entertain him till Mrs. Bagley come home and relieved us. Billy was in a very wretched
