

Wednesday
Nov. 10th Snowed in the night - but beautiful bright sunshiny day - a great many leaves still on the trees & brown maple just beginning to lose its leaves and lilacs etc - still green and full of foliage. Quite cool. Did French and Short-Land - Mr. Green (John) was here fixing the window. Went down town after dinner and up to brother's to measure Frances' dress.
Did some shopping. After tea worked one bluebird on towel for Nell and went to Mrs. Sinclair, Walkerton, Mrs. McEachran, Kapanea and Mrs. Luhn. Charles at Red Cross Meeting.

Thursday
Nov. 11th Armistice Day. Ice in the morning - had been snowing in the night and by noon a real snow storm on. Was down town in the morning to the Bank and for meat. Knit - 10 rows to increase 100 stitches for sleeves on Frances' dress then knit 4 inches. Went down town in the afternoon to see about rings for
