

March

THURSDAY, 13

(72-293)

1919

Choring and drawing up wood.

I down to Jack's for an hour.

Fine day but cold N.E. wind.

Mother had to go back to bed again.

FRIDAY, 14

(73-292)

Done chores and chopping some in forenoon. Then drawing up wood in afternoon. Da took another week spell and had to go to bed. I over to Burgess to phone how mother was. She a little better.

Very strong and cold east wind but clear & bright.

SATURDAY, 15

(74-291)

Brock done chores, cleaned pens and sifted ashes. Da in bed until noon and in house all day.

Brock & I to town at night.

East wind with rain at times. Freezing.

SUNDAY, 16

(75-290)

Jack Walter up in morning. Da out to barn a couple of times.

heavy rain in forenoon from east. Very foggy and dull all P.M.

Ray down with message saying mother would be home in morning.